

Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA")

Acer respects the intellectual property rights of others. Acer will investigate and respond to notices of alleged copyright infringement pursuant to the requirements of the DMCA. If you believe that any content on this site infringes your copyrights, you may request removal of such content by providing written notice to Acer's agent for notice of claims of infringement as set forth below:

Acer America Corporation
Attn: DMCA Agent
7575 Irvine Center Drive, Ste. 150
Irvine, CA 92168

or by email at copyright@acer.com.

This address and email address should only be used to report allegations of copyright infringement. Notices and/or other inquiries made to Acer's DMCA agent which are unrelated to alleged copyright infringement will not be addressed.

Your notice must satisfy the requirements of the DMCA and include the following information:

- (i) Your name, mailing address, and email address;
- (ii) A statement identifying the copyrighted material you claim is infringed, such as a URL linking to an authorized version of the copyrighted material;
- (iii) A statement identifying where the allegedly infringing material is located, such as URL linking to the allegedly infringing material;
- (iv) A statement that you have a good faith belief that the allegedly infringing material identified in section (ii), above, is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law;
- (v) A statement, made under penalty of perjury, that the information in the notice is accurate and that you are the owner of the copyrighted material or are authorized to act on behalf of the owner of the copyrighted material; and
- (vi) An electronic or physical signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

Acer reserves the right to disregard a notice that is unclear or otherwise fails to comply with the DMCA. In the event that Acer determines that a DMCA notice lacks validity, it may refuse to remove the complained of content at its discretion. Election by Acer to either remove or leave the complained of content does not constitute a legal decision about the validity of your claim of infringement or the possible defenses to a claim.
